CHARGING PUREAIR SPORT

Before using pureAir SPORT the first time, it is best to charge the battery completely.

Charging takes about eight hours on a one amp (1A) USB outlet or four hours on a two amp (2A) USB outlet.

1. Connect pureAir SPORT to a powered USB outlet.
2. The flashing blue light indicates that pureAir SPORT is charging.
3. Each solid light represents 25% charged.
4. Once all four blue lights remain solid, the battery is fully charged.

USING PUREAIR SPORT

- 1. Turn ON: Hold the Power Button until it beeps. Green lights indicate that pureAir SPORT is on.
- 2. Set the TIMER for however long you want pureAir SPORT to run by pressing the Timer Button multiple times until the desired number of hours is represented by green lights (one light for each hour).
- 3. Toss it Into Your Bag in the same compartment as your stinky clothes, towels, and equipment. Lots of perspiration won't hurt, but you shouldn't use pureAir SPORT with sopping wet towels or clothes.
- 4. Forget it. Get on with your life. pureAir SPORT will turn itself off and can hang out with your clothes until you get into your bag and are ready to go at it again!

USING PUREAIR SPORT (CONTINUED)

- Turn OFF: Hold the power button until it beeps. The fan will continue to run and blue lights will flash for fifteen seconds while pureAir SPORT turns off.
- Check the Battery Charge Level: Press the Power Button for less than one second to view the current charge. Each Solid Blue LED represents 25%, and all 4 Solid Blue LED's represents a full charge.
- Operate Continuously: Although not normally required, items like hockey or football pads can be extra tough. pureAir SPORT can run continuously inside your bag if you leave the power on and the unit connected to a USB power source.
 - A. Connect pureAir SPORT to a powered USB outlet while turned on and place it in your bag.
 - B. pureAir SPORT will run continuously until you either turn off the power or unplug the unit.
